

Instructions for linking ORCID to Symplectic if you already have an ORCID

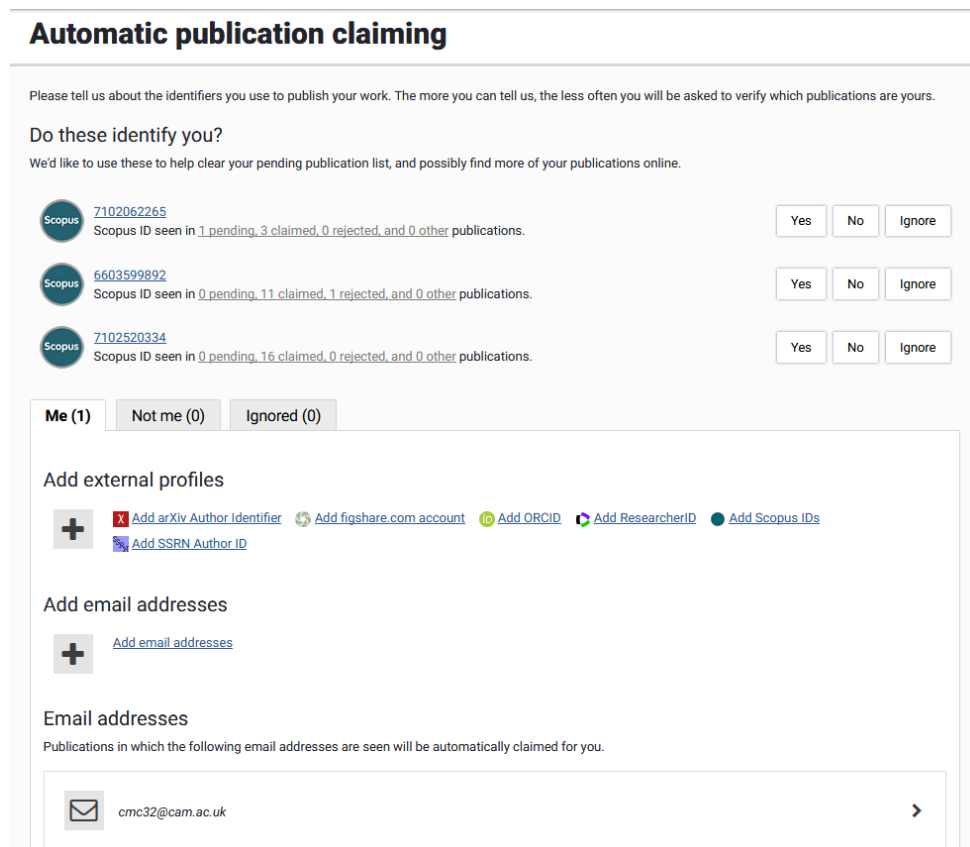

Scroll down to:

Source-specific name-based search terms

Looking for your ORCID or figshare settings? They have been moved to the Automatic Publication Claiming page. This page now only shows data sources whose data supports name-based searches.

Follow the link to Automatic Publication Claiming page

If you haven't already added your ORCID to your search settings, follow the link in the 'Add external profiles' area for 'Add ORCID'.

If you have already added your ORCID to your search settings, it should be listed in the 'Do these identify you?' area, and you should click on the 'Yes' button.

You will then be asked to log on to ORCID and follow the instructions:
